No 1164.

To the DAILY GAZETTEER.

SIR,

If you'll please to print the inclosed Translation of an Extract of a Letter from a Jew in Spain to his Brother in Turkey, you will oblige many of your Readers.

Jacob Brito, a Jew, to Aaron Monceca, of the same Nation.

THE Persecutions, my dear Monceca, to which our Brethren are expos'd in this Country, have occasion'd my making many Reflections on the mutual Evils that Christians have done to one another, which have been entirely owing to that frightful Maxim, that it is not only lawful but even necessary to extirpate Hereticks. The Consequences that flow from this cruel Principle are equally pernicious to all Sorts of Religions. For those who maintain this Notion don't consider that they may be expos'd to the same Sufferings to which they condemn their Adversaries; and if they only reflected on the Inconveniences that attend Persecution, they would soon alter their Opinion.

'PERSONS who are counted Hereticks in one Country, pass for Orthodox in another; and so on the contrary. This will appear to be very evident, if we only examine the several reiging Religions that are at present established in Europe. A Protestant is a Heretick at Paris; a Papist is reckoned an Idolater at London. You see here two Nations of Faiths directly opposite, both calling the other Heretick. But suppose this abominable Principle of the Inquisitors was equally admitted by all Nations, into what Horrors, into what Butcheries, would the whole World be plunged? In Portugal, in Spain, in France, in Italy, in Austria, in Bohemia, in Poland, &c. all the Lutherans, the Calvinists, the Presbyterians, &c. would have their Throats cut, would be burnt alive, broke on the Wheel, or massacred. And in Holland, in England, in Sweden, in Denmark, if the same Maxim was follow'd, the Papists would be used in the same diabolical Manner. In Muscovy both Protestants and Roman Catholicks are equally Hereticks to the Russian Faith. And in Turky these same Muscovites are sacrificed to the Glory of Mahomet, and in Persia to that of Haly. Behold, my dear Monceca, the Horrors, the Crimes, the Impieties that naturally flow from this Maxim, that Hereticks are to be obliged to change their Sentiments by Punishments and Tortures, or Death! If those who pretend to be animated by a true Zeal for the Glory of God were really so, they would be very far from endeavouring to force the Consciences of Mankind by Violences, contrary to the Law of Nature, and to the Notions of all People (who use their Reason) of the Supreme Being. Let it but once be established in all Europe, that Religion is a distinct or separate thing from the Government of the State, how quietly would Princes sit on their Thrones? and what Happiness would their Subjects enjoy? Of what Signification is it to any Prince that some of his People sing in French, others in English, Dutch, German, or Latin; whether they assemble on Saturday or Sunday, provided they love their Country, pay their Taxes, and are beneficial to the Community? But some Politicians will say, if you allow many different Religions in a State, that will unavoidably produce Civil Wars. I own that will be the Case when any of these Religions maintain and put in practise this pernicious Maxim, that we ought to make use of all Sorts of Means to annihilate and destroy all others: And then it sometimes happens, that all the other Sects join together to oppose that one who would tyrannize. But when in a well-govern'd State the People are persuaded that every Individual ought to be allow'd to worship God according to the Dictates of his own Conscience, the whole Society lives in Peace and Tranquility; tho' there should happen to be fifty different Sects. This is certainly an undeniable Truth. Consider only what passes in England and Holland, where, amongst all the different Opinions, as Jews, Antitrinitarians, Quakers, Anabaptists, Lutherans, &c. who, tho' they sometimes dispute, yet never think of destroying each other. The Truth is, they are all equally afraid of the Consequence of this dangerous Principle, that Men ought to extirpate those that are called Hereticks. Farewel, my dear Monceca; live contented, and thou wilt be happy. And may the God of our Fathers load thee with Blessings.'

N. B. We the rather chose to insert the above, as 'tis a Specimen of a Collection of Letters, which will shortly be publish'd, with the Title of the Jewish Spy.

Yesterday arrived two Mails due from France, with the Paris Letters of the 5th and 10th Instant O. S.

FROM Rome they write, that the Congregation of that call'd the Holy Office of Inquisition, have caused two French Pieces to be burnt by the common Executioner in the Square of Minerva; the one intitled, An Apostolical Relation of the Society of Free Masons; and the other intitled, The Truth of the Miracles wrought by the Intercession of M. Paris.

And from Bourdeaux, that 30 Capuchin Fryars have died there, who were poison'd by drinking Wine of a Cask which the Butler had clarify'd with Arsenick, by mistake for Isinglass.

They write from Paris, that M. de St. Perrier, a Lieutenant General of the French King's Troops, was lately attacked on the Bridge of la Tournelle by some Rogues, who took all he had, and upon his crying out Murder, threw him into the River, in which he swam to the Bridge of Hotel Dieu, where he was taken out by some Persons who heard him call out for Help.

M. Moreau, an Officer of the French King's Bedchamber, has received the bad News, that on the 20th ult. at Night, his Wife, Son, and Maid, were murdered in their Beds at St. Amand in Berry, and that after having stripp'd his House of the Jewels, Plate, and every thing that was valuable, the Villains set Fire to it.

They write from Ratisbon, that the Post of Velt Marshal of the Empire, vacant by the Death of the Baron de Wutgenau, is conferr'd on Prince William of Saxe Gotha.

And from Vienna, That after several Conferences held at Court on the Matters in debate between the Emperor's Commissaries at Antwerp, and those of England and Holland, 'tis said his Imperial Majesty proposes to re-establish the Commerce in the Netherlands on the Footing it was on in the Reign of Charles the IId of Spain: And they add that with this View he desires to conclude a Treaty of Commerce with the King and the States General; and that the Emperor's Minister at London has receiv'd Orders to declare, 'That his Imperial Majesty shall, 'on this and every other Occasion, be ready to 'give Proofs of his particular Regard for the English Nation, from which he has receiv'd so many 'Favours, that he shall never forget them; and that 'in the Regulations to be taken for Trade, he has 'no other View than to put himself in a Condition 'to testify a reciprocal Friendship for that Nation in 'Case of Need, &c.'

The States General have lately made a Promotion of Officers, in which they have not forgot a Gentleman known to many of the English Officers, that serv'd formerly in Flanders, viz. M. de la Hrye, to whom they have given a Company in a Regiment of Dragoons, in which he was before but Captain Lieutenant. This Officer is no less than 95 Years of Age, of which he has spent threescore and thirteen in the Service of the Republick; and 'tis remarkable that he is as healthy and vigorous as if he was but 50.

WHereas William Jones, born at Road in the County of Northampton, an hired Servant to the Widow Bluck, of Little Linford near Newport Pagnell in the County of Bucks, did, on the 27th Day of February last, rob his Fellow Servant, William Marriot, of the Sum of Forty Pounds, and run away from her Service:

Whoever shall secure the said William Jones, and give Notice to the Widow Bluck of Little Linford aforesaid, (or to Thomas Mackerell, at Mr. Knapp's in Basinghall-street, London) shall be paid their reasonable Charges, and shall have a Reward of Five Guineas, to be paid on his being convicted of the said Robbery. He is a thick-set short Lad, in his own Hair, clipp'd or shav'd round the Temples, about 20 Years of Age, usually wearing a Red and White thick Handkerchief about his Neck; went away in a Brown streight-bodied Coat with a Cape, and is very near sighted.

CONSUMPTIONS of all Sorts,

ASTHMA's, and all Disorders of the Breast and Lungs,

Directly and infallibly cured by the Great CHYMICAL ELIXIR,

WHICH has restored so many Thousands labouring under the deepest Consumptions and most deplorable Asthma's to perfect Health and Strength in a few Days Time, after all other the most celebrated Methods and Medicines had been try'd in vain.

It at once strikes at, and absolutely eradicates the first Principle or Cause of Consumptions, whether of the Lungs or of any other Kind, as also of Asthma's, or Shortness of Breath, reduces the vicious Ferment of the Blood and Juices, corrects the acrid Salts which erode the Lungs, frees them from all obstructing Viscosities, and does more real Good in one Day than any other Medicine whatever can in ten.

It assuredly retrieves the Patient, tho' reduc'd to a meer Skeleton; and immediately cures the most tedious wasting and almost suffocating Coughs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Shortness of Breath, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain, or Weight in the Breast, Spitting of Blood, Soreness of the Stomach, Throat, or Windpipe: Also Catarrhs, or Defluxions of sharp Rheum, and all Ptifical and Asthmatick Effects, Hectick Fevers, melting Night Sweats, and Diarrhœa's, or Loosenesses, in a pleasant and most agreeable Manner.

It is balsamick, healing and strengthening beyond Comparison, restores in all inward Wastings, Weakness, and Decay of Constitution whatever, perfectly cures Ulcers in the Lungs or in any other internal Part, causes free and easy Respiration or long Breathing, and speedily and infallibly cures ASTHMA's, and all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, be they ever so bad, without the least Disorder, Trouble or Confinement, and is indeed the only true Remedy that can be surely depended upon for the entire Cure of those Maladies.

Nor can the whole Materia Medica afford a quicker or more certain Cure for common Coughs and Colds; but the great Character this most noble Chymical ELIXIR has so justly gain'd, for the direct and infallible Cure of CONSUMPTIONS and ASTHMA's, &c has occasioned many Attempts to counterfeit it; be careful therefore to have the Right, which is to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and at no other Place in England.

London, February 24, 1738.

WHereas John Gregor, Servant to Mr. Edmund Hammond, Warehouseman, in Clement's-lane, Lombard-street, went away from his Master between Five and Six o'Clock in the Afternoon, and took with him a considerable Sum of Money belonging to his said Master; whoever secures the said John Gregor, so as he may be brought to Justice, and gives Notice thereof to the said Edmund Hammond, shall receive Ten Guineas Reward.

N. B. The said John Gregor is a broad-set Man, of a dark Complexion, thin Face, and sharp Nose, with thick Legs, about Five Foot Seven Inches high, and Forty Years of Age; born in Argyleshire, Scotland; and had on when he went away, a blue Coat and black Cap, but is supposed to be in a Light Wig and Grey Coat.

This Day is to be Sold,

And to continue all the Month of March,

AN Extensive and Curious Catalogue of valuable Books and Manuscripts in all Languages: Drawn partly from the Libraries of several eminent and learned Persons deceased at home, partly from a well-chosen and very large Collection imported from abroad. Consisting of the most esteemed Authors in Law, Civil, Canon, Common, and Statute, as well Manuscripts as in Print; in Polite Literature, Poetry, Philology, Miscellanies; in the Sciences, Philosophy, Physick, Chymistry, Natural History, Mathematicks: Also in Divinity, Councils, Fathers, Commentators, Criticks; with variety of other Articles too numerous to be here mentioned. Including a very large Collection of curious Genealogical Tracts, Pedigrees, Historical Treatises of Great Families, &c with a noble Collection of Acts of State and original Instruments under the Hands and Seals of our own and Foreign Princes; particularly, the great Gustavus Adolphus, King of Sweden, and George William, Duke of Brunswick Lunenburg, Great Uncle to his present Majesty; with a noble Series of Swedish and other Northern Coins. A curious and select Classical Library, containing the best Books relating to Greek and Roman Antiquities, the most valuable Lexicons, Dictionaries, &c. and a copious well-chosen Variety of Classicks, printed by Vascosan, Colinæus, Gryphius, the Stevens's, Aldus, &c. The Delph. Edition, compleat; the Classicks, cum Notis Variorum, compleat; the Elzivers for the Pocket, compleat, &c.

To which are added,

A fine Parcel of scarce and beautiful Books of Architecture, Sculpture, Pourtraits of eminent Persons, &c. As also some curious Collections of Prints by the best Hands, and after the most valuable Paintings of the greatest Masters; to be sold very Cheap, the Price fixed in each Book, at THOMAS OSBORNE's Shop in Gray's-Inn, where Catalogues of the Books, &c. will be delivered, Price One Shilling; and Money for any Library or Parcel of Books.

N. B. There are also some very choice Manuscript Sermons in the Hands of the Proprietor.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, or Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experienc'd never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, whichit almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigu'd with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and this, All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with, succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is intirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.
